

South Hunterdon Regional School District

Issue: November 2020

From the Desk of the Superintendent

November 3, 2020

Just a reminder that Tuesday, November 3rd will be a virtual day for PreK-12 students. We will be following the same schedule as if students are in person - teachers should be using Zoom to teach their classes. PreK-2 will be an asynchronous day - teachers should provide PreK-2 students assignments in advance that they should work on for this day and also communicate with parents. PreK-2 students that are in person will not be taking a device home for the day.

District Parent Council (DPC)

Here is a list of parents that will be serving this year. If you have an idea or question you would like them to ask at one of our meetings, feel free to reach out to them. District Parent Council 2020-2021

The TCNJ tutors have been paired with WAS ELLs to support language development through various activities during weekly sessions that cover a mini curriculum focusing on enhancing all domains of language development. Tutors and students meet on Zoom, set up by Cindy Zidzik, then work in pairs in breakout rooms. The weekly sessions began the week of October 5 and will continue through the end of November.
