Celebrating Hispanic and Latine Heritage Month: Read Aloud with John Leguizamo and Scholastic authors

On October 12 our Spanish 4H at WAS participated in the Read Aloud for National Hispanic Heritage Month with John Leguizamo as the host. We only had time to see/hear the first two authors:

- Aida Salazar—Jovita Wore Pants
- Christina Diaz Gonzalez—Invisible

According to Scholastic's rating, this presentation was for grades K-5. In Ms. Magnolia Perez's view, the content and language use was more appropriate for upper grades. Yet, she felt that it was a positive experience for WAS fourth graders and for Ms. Perez as a teacher too.

Special thanks to the West Amwell Fire Department for teaching our Kindergarteners about Fire Safety!

WHAT DO YOU ENJOY MOST ABOUT TEACHING?

The best part of teaching is seeing the "ah-ha" moments with students. When everything you have been teaching them just clicks. When they have truly learned and applied their learning. That is so special because you can see that they have grown because you helped them.

WHAT DO YOU THINK IS THE MOST IMPORTANT THING A TEACHER CAN DO FOR THEIR STUDENTS?

Be their support. We talk about how our class is a family. We truly are. I want the kids to know that I am there for them always. Even when they leave my classroom they are always welcome back.

WHAT ARE THE MOST IMPORTANT THINGS YOU HOPE STUDENTS LEARN FROM YOU?
